"All in" is a statement used to describe a person being "fully committed", "no holding back", "no going back", etc.

Jesus called his first followers to be "All-In" with him. As followers of Jesus today, what does being "All-In"

for Jesus look like in our places of work, in our marriage and as we do life together in our Life Groups? Our 3 chapel sessions will include heartfelt worship and opportunity for everyone to engage personally along with the panelists during the candid "All-In" discussions.
